Dear Reader

Welcome to Gwastad Hall's Newsletter.

We hope you enjoy our new look publication.

If you wish for any notices to be included on your behalf whether it is relating to yourself and your family member or events taking place in your community please feel free to contact either Chris or Tania at the Home, details above.

Gwastad Hall has started the New Year on an Arts & Craft journey. We have always promoted Crafts in our activities and held regular group meetings throughout past years, these included our knit & natter groups where ladies & gentlemen are encouraged to join in also giving families and friends the opportunity to learn from our Residents vast knowledge. Our art group is becoming quite successful as this past month (being February) we have taken on a project for Hope Parish Church, to make a Donkey.

“Parish” the Donkey

Our Residents have jointly made the Donkey for the Easter Services. This project has been a Messy, fun filled activity and has brought so much pleasure to all our Residents, so much so when the Donkey is given over to Adam Pawley (Reverend) at Hope Parish under events.

Church we have to make a second one for Gwastad. Each of our Residents have had their own idea of what they would like to use the Donkey for, thus stimulating countless conversations.

Happy Easter

With Easter fast approaching we are looking forward to an afternoon's entertainment with the Charleston Charlies on Wednesday 23rd March at 2pm. We also continue to hold our monthly Coffee Mornings last Friday of each month. Our two monthly Church services continue to be well supported and we would like to take this opportunity to welcome the new Vicar of Llay Reverend Hew Butler who we look forward to meeting.

Staff achievements/training

Healthcare Assistants Justine Richardson and Natasha Mitchell. Have both successfully passed NVQ2 and NVQ3 qualifications. They attended a presentation on 4th March to receive their certificates.

New Website

We have a new Website up and running with all new information, events, art and crafts and the newsletters can be viewed on here also.

Poem of the Month....Our poem for this edition has been chosen by Mrs M. from her scrap book of poetry clippings:

THE MUSIC OF THE MORNING

The music of the morning,
Such heavenly joy to hear;
From every hedgerow ringing
The sound of birdsong clear.
We call it the dawn chorus,

A choir God daily sends,
When nature serves up for us
Sweet notes from feathered friends.
Never mind the weather;
In sun or rain the same,

This concert plays for ever
To raise our hopes again.
For I venture forward
Through lanes and leas of green,
My heart is soaring skyward
On notes from throngs unseen.
